DAYS OF INTRIGUE FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
General Guidelines

The following information is to advise you of arrangements that have been made for you and to assist you in making plans to attend the Days of Intrigue for High School Students program.

REGISTRATION AND ORIENTATION: Registration for all participants will be Sunday, June 11th from 1:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. Students may register at anytime during this window and move into the assigned room after registration. During the registration window, there are no planned activities. Following registration and move-in, there will be a brief orientation. Attendance for this orientation is required. Parents and students will be notified of their Resident Hall assignment via email.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND OVERVIEW OF ACTIVITIES: The purpose of Days of Intrigue is to introduce participants to the Intelligence Community. Daily schedules are filled with morning and afternoon instruction as well as information sessions with some of the University’s premier academic programs suitable for students interested in intelligence careers.

TRANSPORTATION: You may reach the University by plane, bus, or private automobile. There are flights into Memphis, the nearest large airport. All students are responsible for their own transportation to and from the University campus. Students who drive a personal vehicle to Days of Intrigue will be required to purchase a visitor-parking pass for the duration of the camp. These students will also be required to give their keys to a counselor and have them returned at the end of camp.

EMERGENCY: If an emergency occurs on campus, students must contact a counselor or staff member immediately. Contact lists for the staff and other emergency numbers will be given at registration.

MEALS: All meals will be served in the Rebel Market located at the Johnson Commons. All meals, including breakfast, lunch, and dinner are provided and covered in the cost of registration.

VISITORS: Due to the strenuous schedule of activities involved in the program, off-campus visitors are discouraged during the camp. Any visitors other than parents must be cleared through the Center for Intelligence and Security Studies prior to their arrival. Visitors must adhere to the rules of the Center for Intelligence and Security Studies as well as The University of Mississippi.

WEARING APPAREL: The activities scheduled will be held in various academic buildings on campus and much walking will be involved. We suggest that you bring comfortable walking shoes, an umbrella and rain apparel. Proper sportswear should be brought as well (i.e., tennis shoes, shorts, etc.).

WHAT TO BRING: You should bring sheets (for an extra-long single bed), pillow and pillow cases, blanket, towels, wash cloths, soap, shower shoes, and other personal articles. Personal articles (including spending money, jewelry, etc.) are the sole responsibility of the student. Each dorm room has high-speed Internet connections in the room. We suggest that each student bring a computer, iPad, or tablet for use during the exercise.
DORMITORY RULES: Students will be housed in University of Mississippi dorms and room assignments will be given at registration (requests for roommates will be honored if BOTH students notify our office in a timely manner). During registration, students will be given the key to their room and allowed to move in after that time. All students housed in University housing will abide by University and CISS rules. We would ask that you pay particular attention to the rules prohibiting certain items in the rooms (see the end of this document for the short and sweet list of prohibited items). We would also ask that all students understand that all housing regulations are there for your safety and protection – not to hamper your summer experience. These rules were not made at random and are in place so that we can all assure you have the best experience possible. We take our responsibility for your safety very seriously, so any violations of these policies will result in immediate dismissal from the program.

You will be responsible for damage to your room during your stay at the University. If you have any accidental damage, please notify your counselors immediately. Complete rules will be supplied upon your arrival, but loud noise is prohibited in the dormitory at all times. Remember that some students go to bed early. Also, a lost key results in a replacement charge. Please be sure to keep up with your key!!

Additionally, you will not be allowed to leave the dormitory before 6:00 a.m., and you must be in your designated area of the dormitory by 10:00 p.m. You must be in your room by 10:30 p.m.

PHONES AND CELL PHONES: Although students are allowed to have cell phones, we would like to emphasize that students are responsible for their own property, including cell phones!

AUTOMOBILES: Participants who bring automobiles must obtain a visitor-parking permit. Participants’ use of their automobiles while in attendance must include permission of the parents and approval by CISS. Students are not allowed to drive their cars at any other time. Keys to cars should be turned in to the Counselors as soon as unpacking is completed. During the DOI program, students will not be allowed to leave the UM campus.
